Frankfort High School

Frankfort, Kentucky

1948

Foreword

We, of the Senior Class, take pleasure in presenting this picture record of the people and the activities that make Frankfort High School. We hope it will be the means of recalling many pleasant experiences and friendships of your school days.

Perhaps the most significant thing about an annual is the fact that it is the work of the students. It is a product of their thinking and planning and a portrayal of school life as they see it and wish to remember it.

In this edition of the Capitolian we have endeavored to capture a bit of the spirit of Frankfort High and to preserve memories that are near and dear to you, the students of our school.

Dedication

With the passing of Mr. H. V. McChesney, Sr., on August 15, 1947, Frankfort High School lost its most loyal supporter and its dearest friend. He was loved by all who knew him, and his death came as a great shock to both the faculty and the student body.

"Uncle Harry" will long be remembered for his constant cheerfulness, his ever ready wit, his great sense of humor, and his tireless spirit. He was always eager to lend a helping hand, especially to the handicapped and the under-privileged.

Mr. McChesney began teaching at the age of twenty and in 1892 became School Superintendent of Livingston County. He served as Superintendent of Public Instruction of Kentucky from 1900 to 1904 and in this position accomplished many things for the betterment of schools throughout the state.

From 1911 until the time of his death, he was a member of the Frankfort Board of Education and was Chairman of the Board for many years. It was through this affiliation with our school that he came to be loved and respected by the students and faculty members. In 1934 the Frankfort High School football stadium was named McChesney Stadium in his honor.

One of the greatest honors bestowed upon "Uncle Harry" was that of being voted the outstanding citizen of Kentucky in 1941.

In order to show the respect, love, and admiration the students had for him, and in recognition of his thirty-six years of service to our school, we, the members of the Senior Class, do hereby dedicate this, the 1948 Capitolian, to the memory of Mr. H. V. McChesney, Sr. In so doing we acknowledge our indebtedness to him, and partially express our appreciation for having known "The Grand Old Man."

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1948:

It is always a source of pride to me to see our graduates fit themselves into various niches in their communities. In the past these young people have prepared themselves by study, hard work, and by accepting the responsibilities of good citizenship. I know the class of 1948 will be no exception to this general plan and that you will find your place and make a contribution to society that will list you, too, with those who bring honor to Frankfort High School.

I want to offer you my congratulations on your achievements and my best wishes for your future.

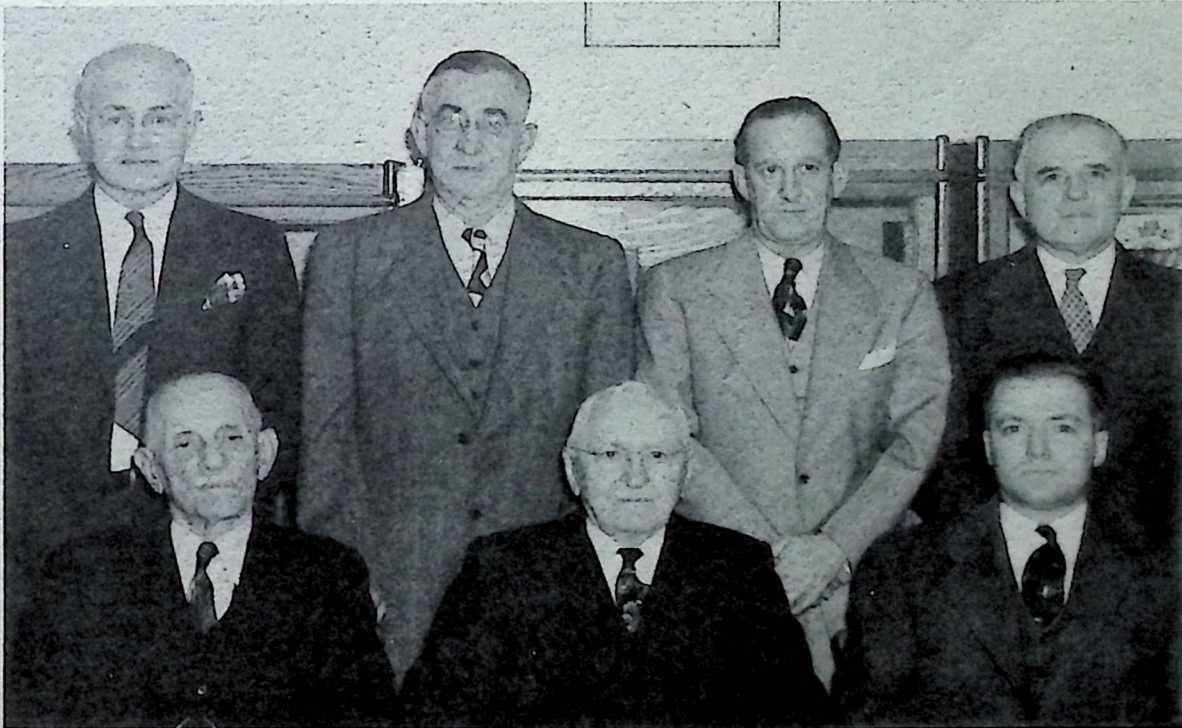

Sincerely,

C. D. REDDING,
Superintendent.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of Frankfort High School, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, in form and manner as follows:

We, Julia and June Adams, leave with Tommy Fields and Jimmy Broadus.

We, Doris Ballinger, Nancy Childs and Bonnie Perkins, leave our stenographic ability to Bobby Crutcher.

I, Elizabeth Brawner, leave my love for Shelbyville boys to next year's football team.

I, Billy Brooks, leave my athletic ability to Bob McDonald.

I, Ruth Carr, leave; my little brother can carry on the family name.

I, Betty Sue Carter, leave my flirtatious ways to Jane McDonald.

We, Clayton Craine and Henrietta Long, leave for our weddings.

I, Joan Corbin, leave my unexcelled ability to keep my mouth shut, to anyone who wishes to follow in my footsteps.

We, Libby Cox and Blanche Fint, leave nothing as we're taking everything with us.

I, Martha Sue Creal, leave my taxi service to Second Street to anyone who can run on "empty".

I, Alice Ann Cull, leave my mid-morning snack to anyone who doesn't have time to eat breakfast.

We, Joy Dungy, Clyde Larkin, and Delores Wright, leave our ability to sleep in class to Billy Bell and all others who wish to try.

I, Ann Dustin, leave my braces to Edna Jo Hill.

We, Marjorie Gabbard and Kathleen Gilbert, leave together.

I, Betty Gardner, leave my ability to sneak out of class to Helen Smith.

We, Shirley Goldberg, Wilma Landrum, and Vivian Mays leave our excess height to Jack McDonald for obvious reasons.

I, Thelma Gott, leave my slender waist to Betty Brown.

We, Patsy Grugin and Louis Johnson leave our ability to be seer and not heard to Yvonne Hardman and Mike Sullivan.

I, Jack Grugin, leave to feed Jackie.

I, Herbert Harkleroad, leave my corny wisecracks to Max Smith. His are getting stale.

We, Felicia Harp and Wanda Thompson, leave our titles "Mrs." to Betty Carol Fryman and Joanne Hodges.

I, Richard Harp, leave my habit of still getting lost in the halls to any freshman who might be as absent minded.

I, Norma Jean Harrod, leave the adage, "Don't smoke and grow tall" to Marilyn McClure.

I, Earl Henry, leave in my car—what's left of it! ! !

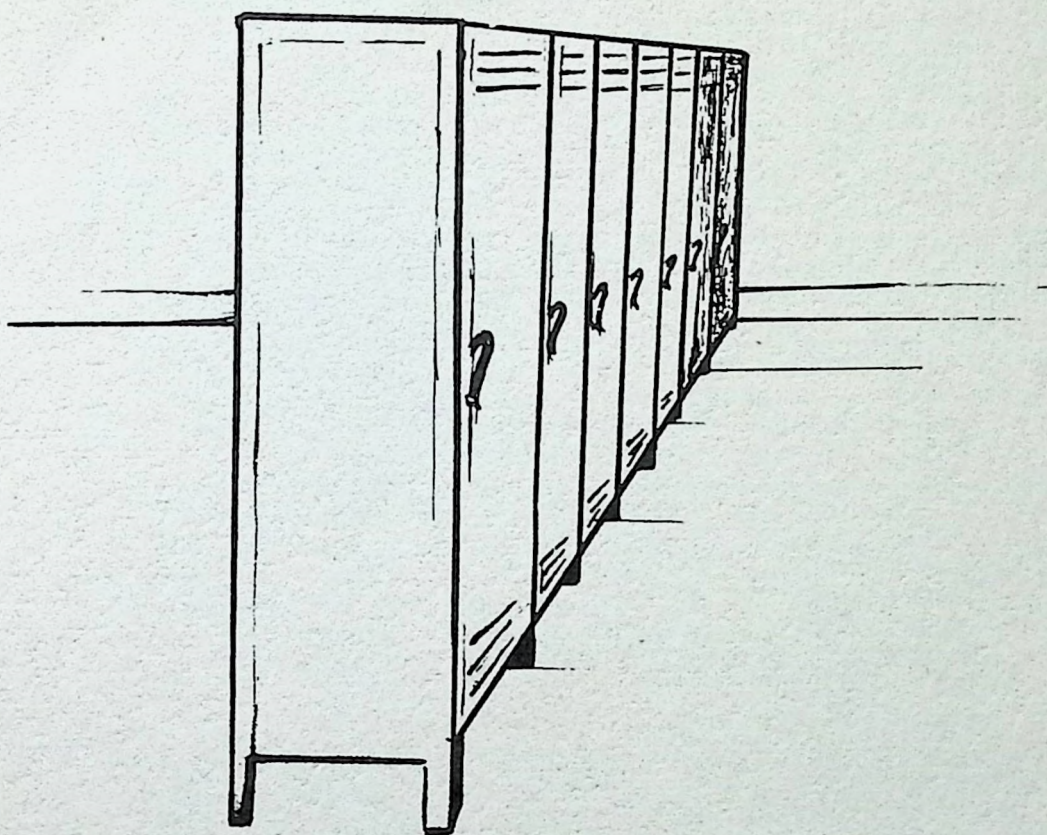

I, Jeannine Howell, leave the strong voice I have developed by two years of cheerleading to Betty Lynn Turner.

We, Jane Hudson and Helen Pulliam, leave Chad and Lindsey at F. H. S. with the sign, "Private Property."

I, Rosemary Johnson, leave my good disposition to Barbara Cardwell.
I, Bub Lighter, leave my parking place on Fourth Street to the 1930 models.
I, Alonzo Linton, leave my knowledge of the Bible to the students of Frankfort High—most of them need it!
I, Kenneth Lowman, leave my scientific magazines to Jim Sory.
We, Ann McChesney and Mary Ann Mayer, leave our Sunday joy riding to Donald Yancey.
I, Billy McQuillen, leave—period!
I, Jimmy Moffatt, leave my dramatic talent to Herman Moore.
I, Jimmy Moore, leave my saddle oxfords to whoever will have them.
I, Roger Moore, leave nothing because I am tight.
I, Billy Moore, leave my old racing forms (I have memorized them) to the library for the benefit of any teacher who might want them for reference.
I, Mary Pardue, leave my charming giggle to Forrest Harrod.
We, Tommy Pardue, Allan Parrent, Frank Snyder and Carl Tracy, leave our harmonious quartet to Billy Marshall and any three boys who'll sing with him—suckers!
I, Betty Sue Parker, leave my endless supply of "news" to anyone who wishes to be well informed.
I, Eddie Earl Paul, leave a pack of fags to Donald Burge and Glen McDowell who never have any.
I, Mary Margaret Plue, leave my inquisitive nature to Billy D. McDonald.
I, Edith Ratliff, leave my salesmanship to Walker Gretter.
I, Shelley Rice, leave my ability to hold my out-of-town "man" to Barbara Finnell.
I, Norma Rucker, leave my crazy antics to Margaret McQueen.
I, Fred Schleifer, leave my size 12½ football shoes to Ronnie Rhody.
I, June Stokley, leave in the tracks of the aforementioned shoes.
I, John Scott, leave my generosity to Tom Baker.
I, Sibby Scott, leave my gullibility to Rose Marie Judd.
I, Ruth Scott, leave in a hurry; I'm going to Boonesboro.
I, Roger Solheim, leave my curly hair to William Snyder.
I, Bos Todd, leave my position in the Mansion living room to the boys in the freshman class.
I, Frances Ann Whitton, leave my reputation as a safe and sane driver to the Juniors.
I, Virginia Wing, leave my southern accent to Dick Wheeler.
I, Eileen Wooten, leave my beautiful blonde hair to Joan Hutcherson and all other girls who have to resort to peroxide.
In witness thereof, we, the class of "48", have to this our will, set our hands and seal this first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.

COULD THIS BE—I. Mary Margaret Plue? 2. Ruth Scott? 3. Jeannine Howell? 4. Fred Schleifer? 5. Wenonah Jones? 6. Alice Ann Cull? 7. Shirley Goldberg? 8. Norma Jean Harrod? 9. Allan Parrent? 10. Classes

Prophecy

June 1, 1958

Mr. Fayette Duncan Wilkinson
State Superintendent of Public Instruction

Dear F.D. :

In regard to your letter concerning the whereabouts of the class of '48, your favorite class, I reply with this report and, although it is slightly inaccurate, it is the best I could do at the present. On this, the tenth anniversary of their graduation from high school, I know you will be glad to hear what those fine, upstanding pupils of that class are now doing.

It was rather difficult for me to find time to gather this information on the students' vocations as I have been kept quite busy working on medical research. Dr. John Scott, however, generously offered to carry on my work while I was absent. Dr. Scott was ably assisted by nurses Norma Jean Harrod and Patsy Grugin. Collecting this material became such a tedious job that I finally had to hire several extra secretaries. For old times sake I employed Nancy Childs, Elizabeth Ann Brawner, June Adams, and Marian Davis, all outstanding in the field of stenography.

Many of my former classmates have found their careers in radio. Carl Tracy is the head of the local radio station, FLOP. He also appears in the "Four Keys" Quartet heard each Friday night. Immediately following their program the news commentator, Roger Moore, who knows all, sees all, and tells all, may be heard. Also on the air are the famous comedians, Sam Cox and Eddie Paul. The all-girl orchestra and chorus under the direction of Tommy Fields, is one of the favorite musical programs being broadcasted today. Among the girls are Betty Sue Parker, Betty Gardner, Jane Hudson, Julia Adams, Wennonah Jones, Eileen Wooten, Soloist Betty Sue Carter, and that great duo-piano team, Martha Sue Creal and Mary Pardue. This station was one of the first to use television and now these sons and daughters of F.H.S. can be seen as well as heard on the radio.

Tommy Pardue, another member of the "Four Keys" Quartet is editor of a large eastern newspaper. This paper is now carrying a feature of great interest written by Rosemary Johnson, a well-known social worker, who has just returned from Europe. Working with the paper are Elizabeth Ann Cox, photographer, and Ruth Carr, her assistant. You will be glad to hear that Alice Ann Cull has also entered the field of journalism as editor of Time Magazine.

Bos Todd and Jimmy Moore are really going places as car dealers. Down the street from their business establishment Richard Harp and Billy McQuillen have opened a new garage. Bub Lighter is their head mechanic.

One of the boys from our class, Alonzo Linton, has entered a religious profession. James Lowman, eminent scientist, is doing research work in the Oak Ridge Plant in Tennessee. That is all the information I could obtain about him as his work is of the utmost secrecy.

The faculty at the public schools contains some very familiar names. Shelley Rice, having been under the expert training of her father for many years, is now the first woman coach at Frankfort High. Allan Parent, one of the "Four Keys" Quartet, is the new Superintendent of city schools and Wilma Landrum is his secretary. By the way, Edith Ratliff and Doris Ballinger are teachers at Second Street School.

Some of the students of the class have taken up business administration. Don Wheeler is now managing Newberry's 20c Store (inflation, you know) and Frank Snyder is head of the Union Underwear Company. The town recreational center, Billy Brooks' and Roger Solheim's billiard emporium, is said to be doing a thriving business. Bonnie Perkins and Margie Gabbard have finally passed the C. P. A. examination and have their own accounting firm.

Mary Ann Mayer, Ann McChesney, and Helen Pulliam have become leaders in the high society of Franklin County and their daughters are following closely in their footsteps. I suppose they hope to become debutantes, too!

Not far from Frankfort on Shady Lane you will find several beautiful farms. One of these belongs to the great race horse trainer and handicapper Big Bill Moore. Another one belongs to Louis Johnson, who is said to produce the best tobacco in this part of the state.

Jimmy Broaddus and Clyde Larkin, two mid-term graduates, are now playing the stock markets in Lexington, Ky.

You will be glad to hear that several of the students are now making their career in the big city of New York. Jeannine Howell has reached stardom with her famous ballet dances and Jimmy Moffatt is fast becoming a second Barrymore on Broadway. Thelma Gott is employed as one of the Power's Models and Joan Corbin has become a well-known dress designer.

Sibby Scott, Frances Ann Whitton, and Blanche Fint, not having decided yet as to their life work, are still taking vocational tests.

Most of the beauty salons in Frankfort are now run by the students from the '48" class. Kathleen Gilbert, Ann Doris Hyatt, and Delores Wright, have a great deal of talent at this and do a wonderful piece of work.

Earl Henry and Fred Schliefer have opened a joint office as lawyers and possess the reputation of never having lost a case. Clayton Craine the first woman to enter the Frankfort Bar (practicing law, that is) is giving them some stiff competition.

If you ever need to make a speedy business trip be sure to call on Norma Rucker, who owns and operates a private plane obtainable by charter. You are sure to get the most luxurious riding on this plane as Shirley Goldberg is the the stewardess.

Ann Dustin and Jack Grugin, former students of the '48 class, are busily occupied in "pharmaceutical" work in the city's drug stores. Vivian Mays and Joy Dungy have continued their jobs as waitresses there also.

Recently an exhibition was given by the Frankfort Art Club. Several of the paintings were by the famed artists Ruth Scott and June Stokley. The exhibition was held in a new building designed by the architect, Mary Margaret Plue.

Wanda Thompson, Felicia Harp, and Henrietta Long are free of the cares of the business world for they have married and settled down to a quiet home life.

With my best wishes for your success in the future, I remain

Cordially yours,

Dr. H. N. Harkleroad

Dr. Herbert Harkleroad

O tempora! O mores! (Oh, what times! Oh, what a situation!) These are famous words of Cicero which the unfortunate slaves are muttering as they kneel before the omnipotent Senate and Roman People. No doubt they had similar thoughts when they were ferried across the Styx River in the initiation play "A Trip to the Other World."

In the consulship of S. Macklin and B. Mitchell such good, clean government prevailed that Tribune J. Moore did not find it necessary to exercise his veto power a single time to halt senatorial measures. According to precedent in the SPQR, the slaves were the chief means of support through a profitable auction conducted by Quaestor M. Sullivan. Earlier in the year the sale of Pandora Boxes brought many surprise gifts to purchasers.

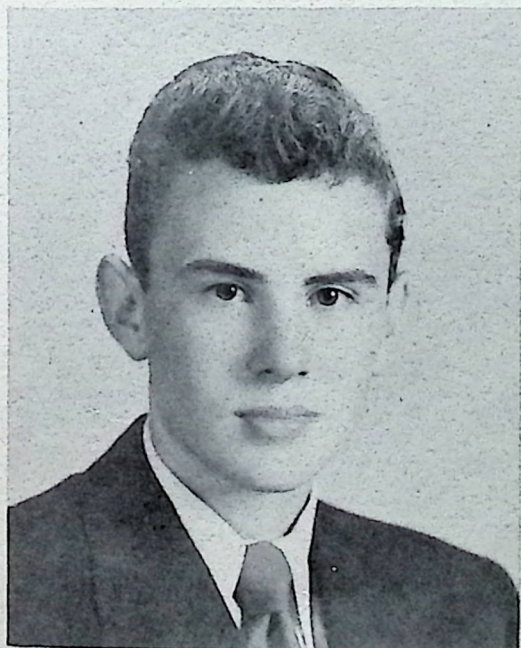

It was during Latin Week in April that the greatest activity took place among Latin Club members in an endeavor to share with their fellow-students their appreciation of and enjoyment in the classics.

Football Lettermen

Jimmy Broadus
Co-Captain

Jim, with his sterling offensive play, went the full route every game and earned an honorable mention on the All-State team.

John Slaughter
Co-Captain

John, in his fourth year as a regular, was one of the best blocking backs in the C.K.C. When called upon to carry the ball, he usually gained the needed yardage.

Billy Brooks

"Bones" will long be remembered for his ability to snag passes. He was a good defensive end as well as an offensive and could be counted on to do more than his share.

Jack McDonald

Jack, who is co-captain anchored the Panther forward wall at center and will be a capable leader next year.

Earl Henry

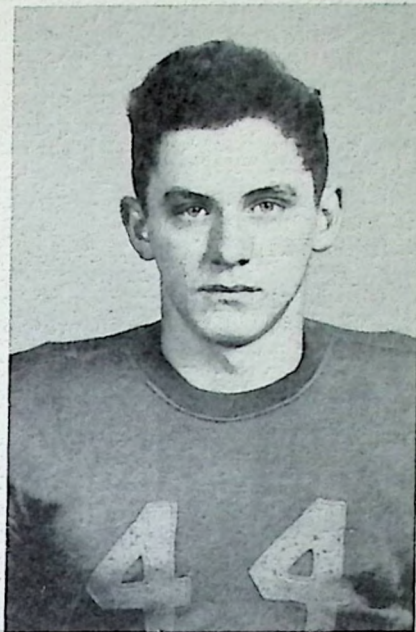

"Red" did his share on offensive, but when it came to stopping end runs, he was always there.

Football Lettermen Don Yancey

Lindsey Quire

Lindsey was the hardest driving back on the team, and once he got started, he was hard to stop.

Jack Moore

Jackie was the scatback of the team and was a demon on defense. He has two more years to play and much is expected of him.

Donald Yancey

Donald, the signal caller of the team, was an expert at handling plays and passing.

Fred Schleifer

Fred, transferred from Elkhorn, and although slow in starting, became an all-round player at the end of the season.

Billy Moore

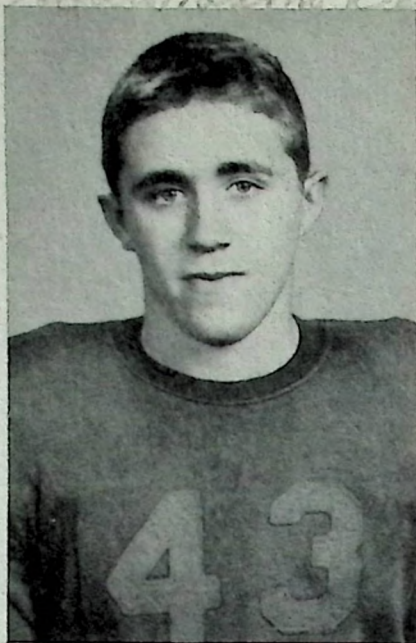

"Sleepy" was one of the best defensive men on the squad, and his hard driving tackles kept us in many games.

Tommy Fields

Tommy, although hampered by early season injuries, was one of the most aggressive players on the team and was always in there playing.

Football Lettermen

Gordon Demerson

Gordon, a utility guard, showed the power that will make him a Nemesis to all foes in the future as he earned his first varsity letter.

Jim Sory

Jim, hampered all year by injuries, showed the power late in the season to make a demon lineman next year.

Don Slaughter

"Blackie", a junior transfer from Bridgeport, rapidly became a rugged guard in his first year and will be a mainstay next fall.

Jim Moore

Jim was one of the best blockers and tacklers on the team; his hard plunging made him a capable fullback.

Lloyd Russell

Lloyd, a sophomore letterman who played both end and halfback equally well, will be a great help to the Panthers during the next two years.

Ronnie Rhody

Ronnie, another sophomore, displayed promise of becoming a powerhouse fullback in his next two years.

Die Anchor!
Ronnie Rhody

Football Lettermen

Tootie McDonald

Jerry South

Jerry South

Jerry, a hefty sophomore, filled the tackle slot with great ferocity and showed that he will be a "Rock" in the forward wall this coming season.

Richard Harp

Richard was an all-round halfback; his hard driving runs and defensive play was surpassed by few on the team.

Richard Harp

Charles McDonald

"Tootie" filled in when injuries plagued the tackle slot and proved his worth in many a game with his hard playing.

Basketball Lettermen

Tom Pardue

Tommy's dead eye and rebounding ability will be greatly missed by the future Panthers.

John Hampton Mitchell
John Mitchell

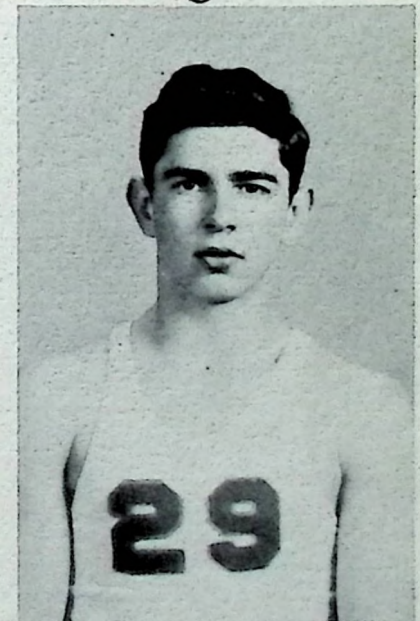

Johnny was one of the best shots on the team and earned a starting assignment with his determination and spirit.

Billy Brooks

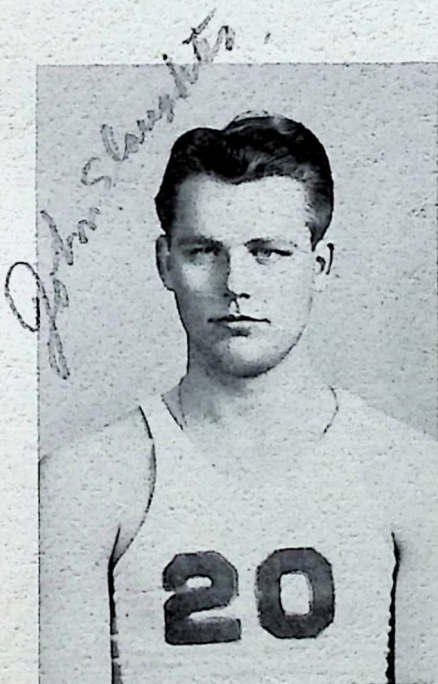

Captain Brooks' ability to score made him high-point man for the year; fans consider him the best player in the C. K. C.

Don Yancey

Don Yancey

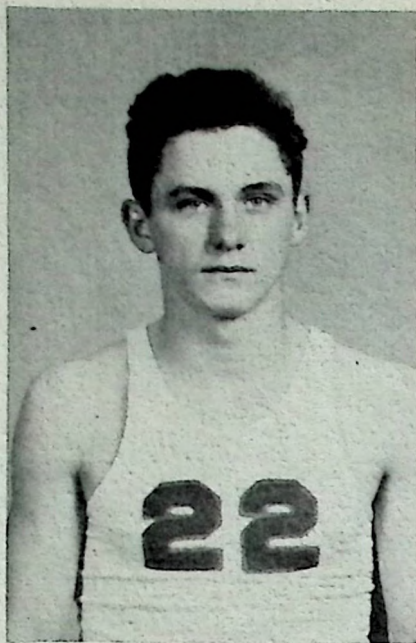

Don was a fast guard who really drove for the basket; his ability to sink long shots gave him more than his share of points.

John Slaughter

John was an outstanding offensive player; his calm and deliberate manner did much to keep the team together.

Basketball Lettermen

Jack Moore

Jack, who played both guard and forward, was always ready to play either position; his defensive work in the Paris game was especially outstanding.

Bill Moore

Bill was one of the best defensive players on the squad; his rebounding kept the team in many a game.

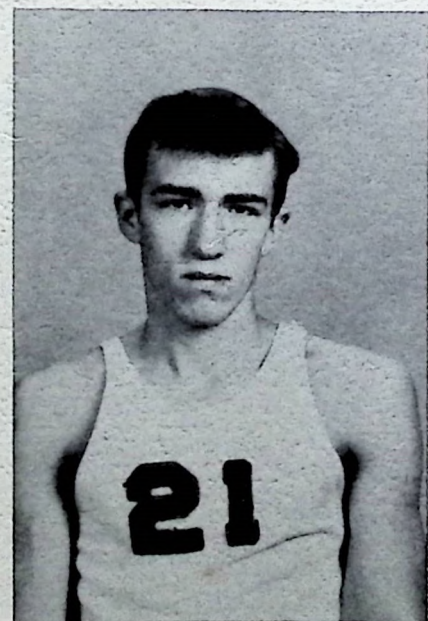

Don Slaughter

"Whitey" made up for what he lacked in size with his speed and ability to score from any angle.

Lindsey Quire

Lindsey's lack of experience did not lessen his determination and drive; he gave everything he had when he played.

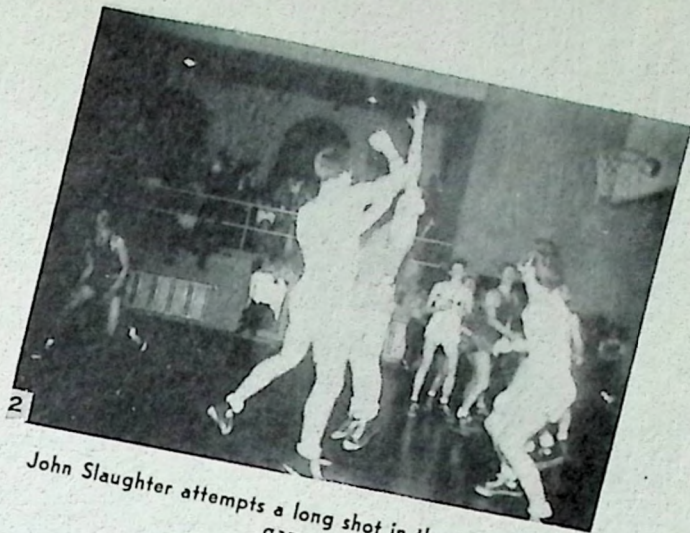

Roger Solheim

Roger's spirit and eagerness to play earned for him a place on the squad, and he handled the ball like a seasoned veteran.

Brooks and Coach Charles receive 41st District Trophy.

John Slaughter attempts a long shot in the Henry Clay game.

Four Panthers ready for the rebound in Georgetown game.

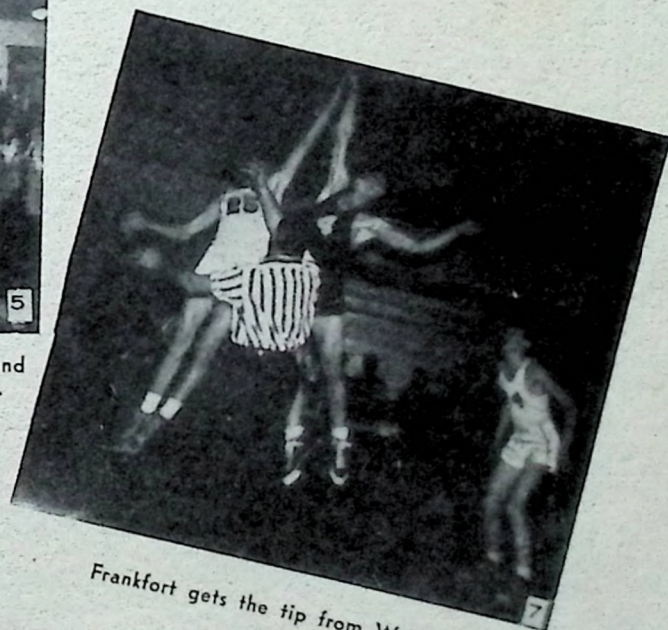

Pardue tries difficult shot from the corner.

Yancey steals the ball and breaks away for a bucket.

Brooks rebounds for two points against Danville.

Frankfort gets the tip from Waddy.

We, the Capitolian Staff, wish to express to all who have helped in the preparation of this yearbook our sincere appreciation. We are indebted to Miss Grazia Combs, the faculty advisor, and to those students and other faculty members who have contributed their time and energy to this project. We are also grateful to the advertisers. Some of them could expect little direct remuneration for their support, but they indicated their interest in the school by a contribution. Without the support of these people this annual would not have been possible.
